"A fun read and important handbook for all collectors or anyone who is thinking about collecting." -- Anne Kugielsky, Antiques and the Arts Weekly

From the Author

America's best-selling collectibles reference book is back to help buyers and sellers correctly and efficiently identify more than 4,300 unique pieces of fine art and collectibles - the only fully-illustrated general price guide on the market today.

From the Inside Flap

Each of the more than 4,300 listings in this guide provides details that aid in proper identification, and in some cases, a better understanding of the history, of an item. Identifying information such as design elements, shape, size and color, accompanies vetted values recently paid at auction and color photographs in each listing. In some instances listings also include brief details about the provenance of an item.
