Editorial Review

Review

“This is the best of the criminal law textbooks I have taught from. I think it is more student-centered. So many texts seem designed to impress other professors, but this one makes sense to the students, while not skimping on the material presented.”

(Brian Cranny)

“I would, and have, described the book as a nice succinct clearly written text ideal for an introductory course in criminal law. I also say that I highly recommend it for such a course, and tell them that I keep using it. I also praise the support (supplemental) materials that come with it.”

(Stephen M. Sherlock)

“...Helpful equations regarding criminal law.”

(Stephen A Brundage)

About the Author
