Editorial Review

Review

The New Lakota Dictionary is a breakthrough in contemporary Native American language studies...revolutionizes what we understand about the historical development of Lakota and Dakota dialects...clarifies many problems found in earlier lexical works...much needed and innovative. --William K. Powers, author of Sacred Language: The Nature of Supernatural Discourse in Lakota

This is the Lakota dictionary linguists and educators have been waiting for...a monumental work...consistent and phonetically accurate spelling system...surpasses any other dictionary in number of English-Lakota entries...by far the best Lakota dictionary available, in terms of ease of use for 21st century learners, as well as in terms of lexicographical coverage and grammatical accuracy. --Willem de Reuse, author of, One Hundred Years of Lakota Linguistics

The addition of the grammar usage section to the dictionary makes this resource even more invaluable. This resource is a must have for linguistics programs, libraries, as well as for larger public libraries and Native American culture museum libraries. Thank you for this resource. --Independent Publishers Book Awards (IPPY) Judge
