How the Cross Became a Sword By Richard Booker

THE TRAGIC HISTORY OF CHRISTIAN ANTI-SEMITISM The persecution that the Jewish people have experienced for the last 200 years has been horrifying. Much of this persecution has come from the Christian church. A spirit of anti-Semitism still lies deep within the hearts of many nominal Gentile Believers, and church leaders. The relationship of the Church to the Jews, and the nation of Israel will soon cause a major division in the Church. Both Jews and Christians must be informed! In this publication, best selling author and Bible teacher, Dr. Richard Booker explains the following timely information. The events that separated Christianity from its Jewish roots in the first three centuries of the Church. How the Church embraced pagan ideas and practices that established anti-Semitism as official Church doctrine. How Hitler could quote Martin Luther to justify the Holocaust. What Christians should do in the light of current world events that are fanning the fires of anti-Semitism. This incredible book explains the dramatic events that separated Christianity from its Jewish roots in the first three centuries of the church. These events established anti-Semitism as official church policy. Richard then gives a concise overview of the tragic history of Christian-Jewish relationships.
